Targeted Violence What is it?

Targeted Violence is premeditated violence and is usually directed at a specific individual, group, or location. A perpetrator of targeted violence is typically responding to a perceived grievance or acting on behalf of particular ideology.

Targeted violence is different from impulsive, reactive, or emotional acts of violence. Some examples of targeted violence are school shootings, workplace violence, domestic violence, stalking, and terrorists attacks.

You should contact WYTAC if a classmate, co-worker, partner, family member, friend or neighbor is demonstrating concerning behavior such as:
